

Dragon Day! Saturday, January 28th all day!

Did you know that 2012 is the Year of the Dragon? In honor of the Year of the Dragon, we will be displaying some of our greatest dragon books including the NEWEST installment of the very popular Dragonbreath series: Revenge of the Horned Bunnies.

Throughout the day, we will be inviting kids to make their own pop-up dragons and take the dragonology word search challenge.

Come visit us on Saturday, January 28, and YOU might win a Dragonbreath poster!
